When
Churchill
Wept

On the eve of the Thanksgiving day holiday you will find a satisfactory editorial text in the London dispatch about Winston Churchill which appeared on this page Saturday.

Virginia Cowles, woman war correspondent, disclosed that once during the dark days of the war, when Britain was losing on every front and London itself was under German air attack, the prime minister went to the christening of his grandson — and broke down and wept.

"Poor infant," said he, "to be born into such a world as this."

Churchill, then 66, had seen Britain and France and all the other rich nations of Europe fall upon impoverished times. And with the disappearance of wealth still dark and dreary in Asia we are settling things only made them more unsettled.

But this is Thanksgiving season 1949. The year when Churchill wept was 1940. In the nine years between we have ended World War II with an Allied victory, and Europe is well on the road to economic recovery — certainly we have reason to be devoutly thankful in this season when Thanksgiving is traditional.

There is no sure peace anywhere, it is true. But we have at least fortified and strengthened the Europe from which our ancestors came, and if the situation looks still dark and dreary in Asia we can solace ourselves with the thought that the West never has had either acceptance by or influence in that half of the world.

In that part of the world which we call civilized Europe, seen conditions improve immeasurably since the dark days of nine years ago when even so rugged a person as Winston Churchill broke down and wept.

For that we are thankful. This Thanksgiving season. It is an omen for all men everywhere — that a stark and desperate world may have passed through the worst of things and may now be headed toward a kinder fortune. Even the mere hope of it is something to say thanks for again and again.

Montgomery to Talk to Top Military Men

By The Associated Press
Britain's Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery arrives in the United States today for a round of unofficial talks with America's top military men.

During his 12 day stay, he will confer with General Eisenhower, his World War II boss; Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; Gen. Joseph L. Collins, army chief of staff, and other military and diplomatic leaders.

Montgomery, now chairman of the Western Union defense alliance, has been working for months on plans for the defense of Europe. The plan, known as the "Montgomery Plan," will form the basis of the defense plans for the North Atlantic defense for which congress has voted $1,000,000,000.

Allies will gamble in their fight to hold Europe against any attack from Russia and her satellites.

In the Far East, the feud between nationalist China's top leaders, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and acting President Li Tsung-shan — appeared nearing a showdown. A new party hostile to both the communists and to Chiang may be in the offing, observers said.

White Chiang cooled his heels in the Red-thrashed and nationalist refuge capital of Chungking, waiting for talks with Li, the latter rested in a Hong Kong hospital. He complained of a stomach ailment.

The generalissimo had gone to Chungking several days ago at Li's request. He found Li gone on an inspection tour of the nationalists' domineering southwestern China domain. Then Li went on to Hong Kong, supposedly for a hospital checkup.

The two leaders have had many differences since Li took over the presidency last January when Chiang "retired." Out of these differences developed a split over conduct of the civil war against the communists.

Memphis, Nov. 21 — (AP) — The new Merced and Arkansas bridge across the Mississippi river isn't open yet — but it has had plenty of pedestrian traffic.

Thousands of persons swarmed over the bridge yesterday despite "keep off" signs. They peered over the side of the bridge with no side rails to protect them from the river. 100 feet below. They strolled around a two-foot wide opening running through the middle of the span.

Finally police arrived and cleared them off.

Mother, Twins, Winded Stork Resting Today

Little Rock, Nov. 21 — (UP) — Mrs. Johnny Gollercher, her twin baby daughters and a winded stork all were resting comfortably today.

But resting easier might be a better description of the father. Gollercher and his wife's parents bundled the prospective mother into their car at Devalis Bluff, 42 miles from here, yesterday morning.

They picked up a police escort at Carlisle and the stork had to increase his speed to "from 80 to 90 miles per hour."

Just out of Lonoke, one of the baby girls was born. The Gollercher car was crossing the main street bridge into Little Rock when the second girl made her appearance.

Doctors at the hospital here said the babies were both small, each weighing about five pounds, but that they were in good condition.

The father wasn't sure whether he was or not.

Nine Die Violently in Arkansas

By The Associated Press
At least nine persons died violently in Arkansas over the weekend.

Three members of a Negro family died, apparently of accidental poisoning on a farm near Osceola Sunday. They were Ena Lee Jackson and her two children, Arthur Lee and Edna Mae.

The husband and father, Ben Johnson, was in a critical condition at a Memphis hospital.

Sheriff William Beryman said he believed the family became ill after drinking water from a barrel in which poison for killing grass had been mixed.

A Mira, La., oil field worker, John Collins Sheppard, 26, was shot to death near Texarkana Sunday. Officers were holding a suspect without charge.

Five fatalities were reported Saturday.

Finis Whitehead, 75, of Roland, Ark., died of injuries suffered when he was attacked by a wounded deer.

Mrs. Ed Dorch died in a fire at her West Memphis home.

Claudine Beasley, six-year-old McGeehee Negro, died of injuries after she was struck by an automobile.

Burns suffered when kerosene he was using to kindle a fire exploded proved fatal to Birnest Coker, 38, farmer of near Texarkana.

Lorena, 54, Marston, Mo., was injured fatally in a high-way collision near Blytheville.

Glamor Gals Quick With Reply

Hollywood, Nov. 21 — (AP) — Lady Nancy Astor, who recently described film actresses as "wretched glamor girls," is the motion picture industry council's first candidate for its new flagpole of the month award.

The U. S.-born noblewoman, in an appeal in London for funds to help pay for study in Britain by university women of other countries, aroused the ire of the film capital by declaring:

"I feel the world is being swept off its feet by Hollywood. We hear nothing but tales of these wretched glamor girls."

As individuals, movie folk were quick to reply. British-born Charles Laughton was probably the most outspoken.

"Who in hell cares what Lady Astor thinks about women in Hollywood so long as men in this country (the United States) are satisfied with them," he declared.

Last night the council, representing 35,000 people in the film industry, announced its award. A spokesman stated that by virtue of their public reply to her, the "wretched glamor girls" have nominated Lady Astor.

We are awfully tired of people who use attacks on Hollywood as a convenient device for getting their names in the paper," the spokesman explained. Flagpole sitting has been the most obvious resort of the space hunter and we can think of no better rebuttal for our publicity-seekers like Nancy Astor than to give them their own flagpole to go sit on."

This Patient Knew How to Save Money

Pallston Spa, N. Y., Nov. 21 — (AP) — Dr. Harry E. Hansen, veterinarian, got a call from a downtown drugstore. A farmer there wanted him to look at a sick cow.

Dr. Hansen picked up the farmer and drove him through winding, country roads.

As the pair pulled up to the farmer's house, the farmer opened the car door and said: "You can let me out here, doc. I haven't got a sick cow. You see you charge only $3 for a visit while a taxi would have cost me $5."

New Chinese Party Hostile to Reds, Chiang

By WAYNE RICHARDSON
Hong Kong, Nov. 21 — (AP) — A new party hostile both to the communists and Chiang Kai-shek may be in the offing in China.

Acting President Tsung-jen is expected to take the lead in it. He is now in a hospital in this British colony. He arrived Sunday.

Chiang still is awaiting Li in Chungking. The generalissimo went there from Formosa last week at Li's invitation.

Foreigners from inland China who arrived over the weekend, said the new party, would expect United States help in stemming the communists likely would shape up this way:

Li and his old friend, Gen. Pai Chung-shi, a strong nationalist military man left on the mainland, would join force with three other important Chinese, Gen. Chan Chai-ling, administrator of Hainan island, and Generals Hu Shieh-yueh and Yu Han-mou, in southern Kwangtung province.

These observers said the new party would adopt a more vigorous policy against the communists than Chiang's policy of trading space for time and avoiding major battles with the Reds.

Such a policy, the observers said, might gain the support of people dissatisfied with the communist administration and might win sympathy in the United States and substantial material aid.

The British-owned China mail said Li and Pai would organize a new anti-Chiang government.

The United States as a contact man in an effort to seek American aid. He already has a personal representative in Washington — Kan Chih-hou.

Comment from Li was not available. He has closed his hospital quarters to all but members of his family.

Grounded Flier Tries to Kill His Wife

Wichita, Kas., Nov. 21 — (AP) — Police reported an air force officer, upset over being grounded because of the air force cutback program, attempted to kill his wife yesterday.

Detective Carl Spriggs said that Arthur E. Chatham, 32, also threatened to kill himself and his four-year-old daughter.

Police quoted Mrs. Chatham as saying her husband was "in love" with flying and had suggested a flying trip to Europe.

The mother's statement related that she found her daughter bleeding from an inch deep wound in the abdomen and trying to cut herself again with a 14-inch butcher knife.

Tone was notified but arrived at the receiving hospital 20 minutes after his wife had left for Hollywood Presbyterian hospital.

There is no plan for a reconciliation, "Tone said. "I am very sorry." He married her in Yuma, Ariz., in 1941.

The Hope delegation will go in a body, leaving from the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Well Girls the Odds Seem to Be in Your Favor of Getting a Husband — in Alaska

By HAL BOYLE
New York — (AP) — Looking for a good strong man to build your life around, sister, you'd better look to Alaska. The odds are in your favor there.

"It's a great place for a girl to find a husband," said Margaret T. Johnson, a young woman of Fairbanks, which he says is the third largest city in Alaska and "the largest one farthest north."

"There are about three men to every woman — maybe more — throughout the territory," said Johnson, adding this note of caution:

"But a lot of young girls who came up there and saw our rough-hewn old miners might feel disappointed. They might want to turn around and come back."

However, though the men are as rugged as the scenery, a girl needn't worry about there being any lack of heat in the long Alaskan winter.

Mayor Johnson and City Clerk E. A. Tonsch came to Manhattan to fix that. They had the chore of signing a $4,500,000 bond issue to build Fairbanks a new municipal sewerage plant and water treatment system.

"It was the first revenue bond issue ever floated in Alaska," said the mayor.

They had expected to have sore arms and spend two days signing the 4,500 bonds — each for $1,000. But it took them only an hour.

"It was amazingly simple," said Johnson. "They have signing machines. You press down on one pen and 19 other pens sign too."

The mayor, a lawyer from Woodstock, Ill., who took his family to Alaska during the last depression, believes the territory has a future for young people with courage to face a rugged life.

It now has a population of only 100,000," he said. "But I don't see why it couldn't support 500,000. There would still be less than one person to a square mile. It's a pretty sizeable chunk of ground up there."

The call of the Alaskan wild has lamed down since the day of Jack London and Robert Service. The territory probably uses planes more than you do here," said Johnson.

"Dog teams, around the cities at least, are just local color now."

The lady that was known as Lou doesn't live there any more. The districts haunted by shady women have been broken up at the request of commanders of army air force bases. Prospectors are more interested in finding oil than gold.

"I had shades of the faded past — the mighty game of poker now is secondary to another pastime, an arctic bingo called pagini or pan."

"It's a kind of cold weather gin rummy," explained the mayor. "The game is very popular — you can only win or lose a little if you play all night."

Johnson said Times Square failed to come up to the northern lights in splendor, and optimism for the future here didn't equal that of Alaska.

"In June we can play baseball at midnight without artificial lights," he remarked. "It never gets dark in summer."

Fairbanks, expressed relief he had been able to complete his business in New York before winter trapped him here.

"I understand you had a 23-inch snowfall in one day a couple of years ago," he said. "Why, we never have a snow like that up here. Only had 31 inches all told last year. Don't see how you manage here if you have courage to face a rugged life."

U. S. Silent on Demand to Use Force in China

Washington, Nov. 21 — (AP) — Fresh demands that the United States use force against the Chinese communists drew only an official silence at the state department today.

The demands were prompted by the imprisonment at Mukden of an American consul, Angus Ward, and four members of his staff have been held since October 24, on charges of having beaten a Chinese employee.

Yesterday Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) said in a Formosa news conference that he had radioed President Truman, demanding a blockade of the Chinese communist coast. The Reds fail quickly to react to Wang. Knowland is touring the orient.

There was no official comment here in reply.

Ex-Wife of Actor Stabs Herself

Los Angeles, Nov. 21 — (AP) — Only hours after she dined with her divorced husband, Franchot Tone, and their two children, beautiful blonde actress Jean Wallace stabbed herself in the abdomen with a butcher knife.

The onetime Earl Carroll showgirl commented yesterday to police officers being treated at George Street Receiving hospital:

"I did it just for laughs."

But police called it an attempted suicide and said that only the intervention of her mother prevented a serious injury or death. Police listed the motive as despondency over the final break-up of her marriage with Tone, which ended in a final divorce decree Oct. 1.

Her husband, while painful, was not serious.

Tone disclosed that he dined with his 26-year-old wife Saturday night after she had taken the children to visit Santa Claus at a department store. He has custody of them.

Her mother, Mrs. Mary Ingham, told police that her daughter returned home about 4:30 a. m. Sunday morning, ran into the kitchen screaming:

"I might as well finish it now."

The mother's statement related that she found her daughter bleeding from an inch deep wound in the abdomen and trying to cut herself again with a 14-inch butcher knife.

Tone was notified but arrived at the receiving hospital 20 minutes after his wife had left for Hollywood Presbyterian hospital.

Poles Hold One French Envoy, Expell Others

Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 21 — (UP) — One French diplomat faced trial and two others were under expulsion orders today in what the communist government said was an espionage plot.

The plot centered around the French embassy and French consulates in Poland, the government said.

Andre Simon Robineau, assistant attache at the French consulate at Kaczecin, formerly Stettin, was arrested Friday as he was about to board a plane at Warsaw for Paris on a month's leave.

The Polish government said in a note to the French government yesterday that Robineau had confessed "his espionage activities" and would be tried with an undetected number of Polish co-defendants by a Polish court.

Also implicated in the plot, the note said, were Aymar de Bressin de Mere and Fernand Renaux of the French embassy in Warsaw. They have been given three days to get out of Poland, the note said.

The note said the two Warsaw embassy employees had been lined to the plot by Robineau and by other persons involved. It said employees of the French consulate at Kaczecin arrested five months ago on espionage charges also will be tried.

Observers speculated that Robineau's arrest might be connected with the removal of Wladyslaw Gomułka, former secretary general of the Polish communist party, from the party's central committee on charges of Titoism.

(In Prague, Polish sources said Gomułka might be given a big public trial such as that given former Hungarian vice-premier Laszlo Rajk. Rajk was convicted of Titoism and treason and hanged.)

(Six crew members of the Polish plane on which Robineau was scheduled to fly to Paris were being kept under police surveillance in Paris. Their plane has been grounded. A French foreign office spokesman said the crew would not be allowed to leave France without the government's permission.)

Survivors of Crash Tell of Experience

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 12 — (AP) — Beefsteak, families, insurance and money over and give me a little room."

That's what survivors of the ditched B-9 said they thought about during "79 miserable hours on two six-man life rafts in heavy Atlantic swells north of Bermuda.

The 18 survivors — four of them on stretchers — arrived here yesterday afternoon aboard the Canadian destroyer Haida. The ship picked them up Saturday afternoon after a U. S. air force B-17 sighted them about 400 miles north-east of Bermuda.

Two of the 20-man crew drowned before they could get through the heavy swells to the two life rafts. One of the 18 survivors was suffering considerably from shock.

But 14 of the bruised and salt-caked airmen walked unaided from the crashboats that brought them to the shore from the ditched bomber. They arrived at the widely cheering hundreds who watched them transfer to ambulances that took them to the Kindley Air Base hospital here.

Most of the men were considered in good condition. Some had suffered sprains. Some had salt water sores. But the majority seemed fairly fit.

The plane's commander and pilot, Lt. Col. John C. Cable of March Air Base, Calif., said the church was to be a first stop ashore for most of the rescued airmen.

"Then maybe we will celebrate a bit," Cable added. "One turned evangelist" during the long, wet wait, but we all thought a lot and prayed we would be picked up."

The pilot said after the plane's radio navigation equipment failed, the bomber was hunting for the island (Bermuda) under every cloud we saw, but had no luck. It was pretty overcast."

"With their full almost out, we jetisoned everything we could and prepared for ditching."

When the big bomber hit the water, the tail broke off, taking one of the three life rafts aboard down with it. The fuselage turned nose down in less than a minute.

The men on the rafts lived on emergency rations, mostly hard candy. When they were picked up, they had one day's supply left. Thirst was no problem because they drank rain water from frequent showers. They also had equipment to purify the salty sea water.

Bloodless Revolt in Panama Rule

Panama, Panama, Nov. 21 — (AP) — This little central American country, site of the Panama canal, changed presidents over the week-end in a bloodless night-time revolt staged by police force leaders.

President Daniel Chavis, a surgeon-politician who has been president less than four months, resigned after helmeted police surrounded his palace. Vice President Roberto F. Chiari, 44, was sworn in as president at 6 a. m. Sunday. Emerging as the new "strong man" of Panama's turbulent politics was Police Chief Col. Jose Remon, 41.

Chavis was swept out of office because he tried to fire Remon and two of his top aides in the 2,000-man police department that is Panama's only armed force. Chavis said he demanded the resignation of the three police leaders because they held interests in two monopolies outlawed by the Supreme court — beef slaughtering houses and commercial bus companies.

Instead of resigning, Remon ordered out his police and isolated the presidential palace. Radio broadcasting was suspended. Newspapers were ordered to withhold their Sunday editions and telephone service was stopped.

This happened Saturday night. By 4:30 a. m. Sunday — before most of Panama's 700,000 inhabitants knew what was happening — Chavis had bowed to the police chief's ultimatum and resigned to avert threatened bloodshed.

Both Chavis and his successor, Chiari, are members of the Liberal party. Chavis was elected

New Hearing Device Has No Receiver Button In Ear

Record Tax Rate in Some School Areas

Hot Springs, Nov. 12 — (AP) — A record tax rate of 65.8 mills will be paid by some Hot Springs city limits, where the rate is 25.8 mills. Other residents next year. That amounts to $6.58 for each $100 of assessed value of real and personal property.

The Cutter-Morning Star school district last September approved a 40-mill school tax rate. A few patrons of the district live within the Hot Springs city limits, where the rate is 25.8 mills. Other residents next year. That amounts to $6.58 for each $100 of assessed value of real and personal property.

Red Inventor Boasts New Planter

London, Nov. 21 — (AP) — A communist inventor has devised an acorn-planter which makes a squirrel look like a fool.

The Soviet news agency Tass told about it today in a dispatch from Bucharest. It said the planter invented by Nica Nicolai of Barlad, Rumania, performs five operations:

"It digs a small furrow, throws acorns into it at fixed intervals, covers them up with earth, stamps the earth firmly in and registers the place."

Wild life observers say squirrels often forget where they bury acorns.

CREAMO ONLY MARGARINE WITH CREAM

Choice of yellow quarters or uncolored pounds

The makers of Creamo Margarine discovered many years ago that pure sweet cream added to their already top-quality margarine made it even better. Better than it is possible to make a margarine without cream. They found the addition of pure cream made Creamo sweeter, smoother and more delicious; so much more delicious, the difference is distinctive. This one simple but costly improvement was incorporated in the churning of Creamo Margarine and like other simple but worth-while discoveries, the addition of pure cream has made Creamo the outstanding product in the bread-spread field. If you haven't already tried cream-enriched Creamo Margarine, try a pound of this deliciously different spread today. Ask your grocer for Creamo, the only margarine made with cream.

...he's moving down to the grocery store. Just heard Creamo's made with cream. (See column at right.)

Domestic Criminals

Dear Miss Dix: If my wife killed me with a gun, she would be hanged. But she has killed me with her tongue just as surely as she would if she had slain me with a bullet. I am dying of angina pectoris, which is the direct result of her nagging at me for forty years. And my only fault has been that I did not make as much money as some other men life, furnished my family a comfortable home, a car, a servant, given my children college educations, yet not one happy day I have had because others had more than we did. If a woman can be punished for taking a man's life, why should she not be punished for taking away from him all that makes life worth having?

Edward Holcombe of Canada, who are students at Oklahoma A & M. Stillwater, arrived Sunday to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brannan.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffie Day Booth and daughter Suzanne spent the week-end in Little Rock with Mr. Booth's mother, Mrs. A. H. Smith. While there, they attended the Arkansas-William & Mary game.

Mrs. E. F. Formby and Mrs. Verda Segnar returned Monday morning after a week-end visit in Little Rock.

pers and grouches and abuse. There are plenty of women who literally wither away and die under the blight of an unhappy marriage.

And the worst phase of the situation is that it is so impossible for the one who is married to one of these husband or wife slayers to defend himself or herself against attack. They are always "on the spot," and ready to be stabbed in the back. Their only remedy is flight. And I think that any man who is married to a nagging woman and any woman who is married to a grouchy abusive man is perfectly justified in getting up and leaving.

Dear Miss Dix: I have recently moved into a small town after living in a large city. The neighbors have commenced calling on me. Now in the city I never had that and I don't want it, as I like to keep to myself. What must I do? Isn't it an insult not to respond to the calls?

MRS. BLANK

Answer: Certainly your neighbors will so consider it, and you will make a great mistake if you begin your life in a small town by affronting them. They will think you are high-hatting them and will never forgive you.

Consider: The women who have called upon you are making a gesture of friendliness and courtesy to you. They are extending you a welcome and doing their best to make you at home among them. They are opening their doors to you and it is certainly the height of rudeness and lack of appreciation for you to fail to respond to their kindly overtures. Any stranger who goes into a community does it for his own advantage. He isn't shanghaied there by the people who already live there. He comes because he thinks he can profit by it, and it is the height of bad taste and bad manners and bad policy for him to despise the people among whom he has settled, or to criticize their customs, or to hold himself aloof from them.

A poll of 105 major college football teams shows that almost half are using the two-platoon system of substitution.

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler
Copyright, 1949
By King Features Syndicate.

Washington, Nov. 20 — Some honestly stupid citizens will believe that the C. I. O. is a vicious, pro-American stand in voting to expel the communists unions. That is the price of a dumb, unreasoned superstition that the great unions are voluntary associations of rank and file.

The C. I. O. has no more right to expel communists than it has to expel Democrats or Republicans because it is a lawless organization, conceived in crime and born of insurrection, it has no obligation to respect anybody's political, civil or religious rights.
Any time it does so that is just the way of convenience and profit.

I have been told by good lawyers that our states have ample legal power to smash the power of the C. I. O. and the A. F. of L. and their allies. The trouble is that legal power exists, but most state and local authorities have forgotten, if they ever knew, that such power is in their hands. Surely some law school could afford to conduct a seminar to revive legal rights of the states and the people which were reserved for them in the federal constitution and which never were waived, defaulted or escheated to the unions.

But, in the practical sense, might makes right in the labor union and that is the way all the union bosses and Roosevelt and Truman have wanted it to be. So, in that sense, yes, the C. I. O. is this very day has a right to expel or refuse admission to C. I. O. likes Protestants, Jews, Atheists, Negroes, and bowlegged and freckled people. It is not compelled to recognize its laws or qualifications for membership to any federal or state law. It should have been thoroughly understood throughout the land many years ago that this is the principle of the unionism.

When you hear Truman spouting about "civil rights" remind yourself to ask him why he has always danced away from all proposals to reaffirm by positive enactment the rights of the people
and the states and cities which have been ridden down by the goons.

The editorial policy of the New York Times on all propositions vital to the new deal-fascist ideology is as phony as any other political fraud of the day. But it has been influential in a phenomenal way. The Times is dull and stately in its cunning. People with a hankering for long words and mock-wisdom are deceived.
Endorsing this exclusion of communists by the C. I. O. the Times says, "by its vote, the court must be understood to have proposed to reaffirm by positive enactment the rights of the people
and the states and cities which
have been ridden down by the
goons."

What me to kick that apart for you?
It is absolutely true, to begin with, that is exactly what communist unionism do. But so do democratic union racketeers and the few Republicans that there are. The only Republicans worth mentioning are John L. Lewis and Bill Hutcheson, the arrogant old gaffer who runs the carpenters'
union. All the rest of the union gangsters are Democrats. And it is a fact well known that they also distort and subvert the interests
of labor for their own political ends.

What else did Roosevelt mean
when he said at the Chicago convention "Clear it with Sidney Hillman"? Think what that meant to millions of Americans. It meant that this scheming alien, this fellow who had been plotting with communists for years, who could not even speak the American language so you could understand him, was going to pick the nominee for vice-president who was almost a sure thing to become President and did become President within a few months.

Did Tobin, of the teamsters, subvert the interests of labor when he arrogantly announced that he was going to spend his whole treasury of $13 million to elect a Democratic congress? When he threw that shocking, drunken brawl for Roosevelt in 1940 in the very hot where I am writing this? Did the late Whitney, of the trainmen,
distort and subvert the interests
of labor for his own political ends?
When he threatened to spend the whole treasury of $40 million to kick Truman in 1947?

Did Dubinsky do likewise when he conducts a political splinterparty in New York as a subsidiary of the garment workers' providing a "radical" Marxian European program at the expense of unwilling members in a closed shop and waging propaganda for the ritish Marxian government,
again at the workers' expense?

Is there no law in the United States or in the New York which can punish Dubinsky for using the workers' money for these political purposes, or anyway, make him stop? If not and since the Times thinks subversion of labor's interests is wrong why hasn't the Times advocated such a law?

Communists unionizers, the Times tells us, "turn a union formed for economic purposes into an arm of totalitarian ideology."

Now ain't that something from a paper that supported Roosevelt's policies all the way while 15 million Americans were driven into unions so that they would be massed and ready to serve and finance his party and his fascist propositions?

This, the Times says, "is intelligible."

Veck Sells Indians for $2,200,000

Cleveland, Nov. 21 — (AP)—Dynamic Bill Veck sold the Cleveland Indians to a group of local business men today for a reported $2,200,000.

The Tribe president announced
the long-awaited action at a news conference in his Cleveland stadium offices.

Ellis Ryan, insurance executive,
is head of a new group that has been dickering with Veck for weeks to buy the American league baseball club and its holdings.

Sale of the Indians amounts to a major business deal for a club which has won the World Series twice in 1920 and in 1949.

The purchasers got, among other things, eight star players, a right negotiator for the use of municipal stadium, the ownership of lalague park, and a farm system.

The 40-man tribe roster includes Pitcher Bob Lemon, who won 22
and lost 10 last year; Pitcher
Bob Feller, who won 15 and lost
14; Shortstop and Manager Lou Boudreau, who won 364; Second Baseman Joe Gordon, who batted .252; First Baseman Mickey Vernon (.281) Outfielders Dale Mitchell (.317) and Larry Doby
(.280); and rookie Pitcher Mike Garcia, who won 14 and lost five.

The Indians and Gordon turned in less than 1948, when Boudreau hit .355 and Gordon smacked in 124
runs.

Eagles Need One Victory for Title

New York, Nov. 21 — (AP)—The Cleveland Browns have won the All America conference football title for the fourth successive season.

The Clevelanders retained the crown yesterday while the Philadelphia Eagles and the Los Angeles Rams went about their business of winning the National's eastern and Western division championships, respectively.

Otto Graham directed Cleveland
to its clinching triumph by passing the Browns to a 31-0 triumph
over the New York Yankees.

The defeat dumped the Yanks
out of second into third place.
The idle San Francisco 49ers
moved into the runner-up slot.

Buffalo defeated the Chicago
Hornets, 10-0, to replace the Hornets in fourth place, the last playoff slot.

The Hornets fell into a fifth show still are shopping around.

(Announcement of the Big Ten Rose bowl representatives is expected around 8:30 a. m. CST).

Pickings are mighty slim for the Sugar, Cotton and Orange extravaganzas, which like the Pasadena game, will be shoved up in late 1950 to avoid conflict with the Sabbath.

From long range, the major bowl appear to stack up approximately this way (records in pa-rentthesis):

Rose bowl — California (10-0)
vs. Ohio State (6-1-2).
Sugar bowl — Oklahoma (9-0) vs.
Tulane (7-1-1).

Cotton bowl — Rice (8-1) or Baylor (8-1) vs. Villanova (8-1).
Orange bowl — The Rice-Baylor leftover vs. Maryland (6-1) or Tennessee (6-2-1).

Others in the picture are Virginia (8-1), Santa Clara (8-2-1) and Kentucky (8-2). Some of these teams must dispose of formidable rivals this week to keep their hopes throbbing.

Officials of both the Pacific coast and Western conferences
said they would announce the Rose bowl representative today.

Lynn Walden's California Bears
closed out their second straight perfect season with a 30-14 victory over Stanford Saturday.

Ohio State finished in tie for the Big Ten championship by playing a defending titlist, Michigan, a bowl ineligible, to a 7-7 tie Saturday.

The Sugar bowl committee is scheduled to meet tonight in New Orleans and a member promised,
"we may have something...definitely."

F. V. Schaub, president of the Mid-Winter Sports association, said he favored the return of Oklahoma's Sooners, who whipped
North Carolina last year, 14-6.

Tulane, loser only to Notre Dame
but tied by Navy, is figured a favorable opponent if the Green Wave can get past tough Louisiana
State in the traditional game Saturday. Oklahoma still must hurdle Arkansas A. and M.

Baylor and Rice clash Saturday at Houston in the tell-tale game of the Southwest. Baylor can clinch
a tie with Rice for the league title
by scoring a victory. Otherwise, the Owls who have lost only an outside engagement with Louisi-

place tie with the Los Angeles
Jons who whipped the Baltimore
Colts, 21-0.
Philadelphia pounded New York's hapless Bulldogs, 42-0. The Eagles need only one more victory
to clinch their first straight title.
The Eagles' path was eased by the Detroit Lions who upset Steve Owen's New York Giants, 45-21.
The form reversal dumped the New Yorkers from second into a third place with the Pittsburgh Steelers stepping up by knocking off the Green Bay Packers, 30-7.
The Los Angeles Rams fought
the Chicago Cardinals to a 28-28
standoff to protect their Western lead head over the Chicago Bears.
The Bears clubbed the Washington Redskins, 31-21.

Youth Swears to Avenge Father's Death

Plainville, Mass., Nov. 21 — (UP)—An 18-year-old college youth charged with holding up a liquor store to finance a vengeance flight to Canada told police today he still plans to kill the man responsible for his father's death.

The student was Patrick J. Parker of Rye, N. Y., whose father, R. J. Parker, vice-president of the Kennecott Copper Co. and president of the Quebec Iron and Titanium Co., was one of 23 persons killed Sept. 9 when a plane crashed at St. Joachim, Que.

The craft allegedly had been time-bombed by a Quebec City, Que., jeweler who wanted to get rid of his wife.

Parker told police he had decided "four days ago" to kill this man. Authorities quoted him that he still plans to seek revenge after his release.

The Brown university freshman faced arraignment on an armed robbery charge in Walpole district court today. He was arrested Saturday night, 20 minutes after liquor store owner Robert Wilkinson reported he had been robbed at gunpoint.

"To understand what I did you will have to understand about my family," Parker reportedly said. "We were very close. I loved my father more than anything in the world. I was very angry to think that a man could take the lives of 23 people, including that of the father I loved so much. I have been thinking it over ever since and I decided that I would kill this man."

Police said the youth referred to J. Albert Guay, the jeweler who allegedly master-minded the time-bomb plot. Guay is held without bail to Quebec City, charged with the first degree murder of his wife, one of the 23 persons who died in the crash of the Quebec Airlines plane.

Cactus Jack Is 81 Years Old Tomorrow

Uvalde, Tex., Nov. 21 — (AP)—Cactus Jack is 81 tomorrow.

That's another milestone for John Nance Garner, 22nd vice-president of the United States, for an ambition to live to be 83. Garner, ruddy faced and white haired, said when he retired from politics in 1941 he wanted to live that long "so that more than half by life can be that of a private citizen."

For 46 years, Garner was in public life — as a Texas legislator and congressman, speaker in congress and vice president.

There's been no announced plan for any celebration of Garner's birthday. He doesn't hold for much of that. Last year he and an old enemy, Ross Brumfield, were deer hunting on the day he became 80. They were hunting again last week.

Up early, tending to chores around his "Uvalde ranch," the nine acres with the big pecan trees, doing what he wants is the daily routine Garner has followed.

tion expert said today.

"The cost of building an effective structure would be prohibitive other than for the very wealthy or the military," said David C. Bohannon, San Mateo, Cal., one of the nation's largest builders of private homes.

To illustrate, Bohannon estimated the bare cost of building a comfortable private family shelter of concrete 15 by 40 feet — small enough to fit any standard lot — with lead-sheathed walls one foot thick and sunk 14 feet into the ground.

"With modern earth-moving machinery," he said, "it would cost about $1,200 to dig the hole, assuming of course that you had no rock excavation problems. And a concrete structure with walls one foot thick would run to about $4,200. And that's just the shell.

"You'd have to make adequate provisions for proper domestic water and sewage disposal. And have its own light plant with sufficient fuel to supply the generator in case power lines were cut.

"Now our highly-mechanized little plant would have to have some sort of cold storage facilities for food — how much would depend on how long you had to stay in it — and nobody, not even the atomic energy commission, is prepared to tell us that.

"Some steel reinforcing around the structure would help. But from what we learned at Nagasaki, we know that an atomic blast blows steel away like dust.

"In the case of lead sheathing, you would have to draw on a subsidy from the United States treasury. We can't even afford lead for drainpipes.

"We're practically already prepared to build anything. But I don't think we're quite ready to produce these units for the 'ecumenical house market.'"

Sad But Wiser
Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 21 — (UP)—Bill Thompson was a sad, sad man today.

First he thought he'd been robbed, and called police when he found the lock twisted from the rear door of his Silver Dollar luncheon.

The officers found no burglary, but arrested Thompson when their investigation led to five pints of whisky in the refrigerator.
